Portfolio Description

This portfolio normally invests substantially all its assets in the large company common stocks in the S&P 500® Index in the proportions at which they are represented in the Index. The Portfolio invests across the broad U.S. large-cap market, including a combination of both large-cap "growth" stocks and "value" stocks. Large companies are generally considered to be more stable but may not have the fast growth potential of smaller companies or the ability to respond as quickly to competitive challenges and changing market conditions.

Investment Strategy/Process

This is a passively-managed portfolio, which means that the portfolio manager does not actively choose the securities that should make up the Portfolio. The S&P 500® Index is comprised of 500 domestic large company stocks. The Index is adjusted quarterly, and when changes to the Index occur, the portfolio manager will attempt to replicate these changes within the Portfolio. However, any such changes may result in slight variations from time to time.

All data represents past performance. Past performance does not guarantee future results. The investment return and principal value of the investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than the original cost. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance data quoted. Call 800-847-4836 or visit thriventportfolios.com for performance results current to the most recent month-end.

The Portfolio is only available to the public through a variable life or variable annuity product. Performance data shown does not include any insurance or annuity charges, which if included would lower the returns. Contact the applicable insurance company for more information and a contract prospectus which will include information on the additional charges and fees that apply to the specific contract.

Investment Objective

Thrivent Large Cap Index Portfolio seeks total returns that track the performance of the S&P 500® Index.

Benchmark(s)

Any indexes shown are unmanaged and do not reflect the typical costs of investing. Investors cannot invest directly in an index.

S&P 500® Index is a market-cap weighted index that represents the average performance of a group of 500 large-capitalization stocks.

Risks: Large companies are generally considered to be more stable, but may not have the fast growth potential of smaller companies or the ability to respond as quickly to competitive challenges and changing market conditions. The Portfolio's value is influenced by a number of factors, including the performance of the broader market, and risks specific to the Portfolio's asset classes, investment styles, and issuers. Markets may also be impacted by domestic or global events, including public health threats, terrorism, natural disasters or similar events. The use of derivatives such as futures involves additional risks. The Portfolio attempts to track the performance of the S&P 500 Index but the return may not match that of the Index due to several factors including timing, expenses and the foreign investment process. These and other risks are described in the prospectus.
