

Thrivent Government Bond Fund

Inception Date Feb. 26, 2010 Ticker TBFIX Total Fund Assets $108.80 million Expense Ratio Gross: 0.73% Net: 0.73%

Fund Description

This fund invests primarily in U.S. government bonds, which may include debt instruments issued or guaranteed by the U.S. government and its agencies or instrumentalities. This includes U.S. Treasuries, Treasury Inflation Protected Securities (TIPS), U.S. Government Agency debt, and mortgage-backed securities that are issued or guaranteed by the Government National Mortgage Association (GNMA), the Federal National Mortgage Association (FNMA) or the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (FHLMC). The Fund may hold securities of any maturity, but under normal market conditions, the Fund's duration will be targeted to approximately five years. Government bonds have a low correlation to equities and may outperform stocks and corporate bonds when the market is declining and investors tend to become more risk averse. As a result, an allocation to government bonds may help diversify an investor's overall portfolio. The Fund may also utilize derivatives for investment exposure or hedging purposes.

Investment Strategy/Process

The portfolio management team uses fundamental, quantitative and technical investment research techniques to determine which debt obligations to buy and sell. The portfolio manager is responsible for portfolio construction and risk management, and uses duration and yield curve management strategies in an effort to increase total return potential and manage risk.

Risks: The Fund's value is influenced by a number of factors impacting the overall market, in particular debt securities and the U.S. government. The value of U.S. government securities may be affected by changes in the credit rating of the U.S. government and may not be fully guaranteed by the U.S. government. The credit rating of the U.S. government may be negatively impacted by rising national debt. The value of mortgage-related and other asset-backed securities will be influenced by the factors affecting the housing market and the assets underlying such securities. Debt securities are subject to risks such as declining prices during periods of rising interest rates and credit risk, or the risk that an issuer not pay its debt. Inflation-linked debt securities, such as TIPS, are subject to the effects of changes in market interest rates caused by factors other than inflation (real interest rates). The Fund may invest in sovereign debt securities issued by foreign governments, which are subject to additional risks, including the risk that the entity may delay or refuse to pay interest or principal. The London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) is being phased out, which brings uncertainty to instruments tied to it. The Adviser's assessment of investments may prove incorrect, resulting in losses or poor performance. The use of derivatives (such as futures) involves additional risks and transaction costs. When bond inventories are low in relation to the market size, there is the potential for decreased liquidity and increased price volatility. In unusual circumstances, the Fund could experience a loss when selling portfolio securities to meet redemption requests for a variety of reasons. The Fund may engage in active and frequent trading of portfolio securities, which may result in higher transaction costs and higher taxes. These and other risks are described in the prospectus.
