Ticker: IILGX (Class S) | AALGX (Class A)

Inception: Dec. 29, 1997 (Class S); July 16, 1987 (Class A)

Objective: Thrivent Global Stock Fund seeks long-term capital growth.

Fund key points

Thrivent Global Stock Fund is a diversified portfolio of global large cap equities, which may include companies from all countries including the United States.

Top down

Strategic allocation

Thrivent Global Stock Fund uses strategic and tactical targets set by Thrivent Asset Management (TAM's) Investment Strategy Committee, which meets regularly and sets the top-down strategy for all of TAM's multi-asset class products. After setting long-term strategic targets, the Fund shifts exposures tactically based on the regions and styles the management team believes can offer the best returns.

Bottom up

Tactical overlay

The Fund follows a bottom-up approach to identify stocks with the potential to outperform over the long term. The domestic portion of the Fund is run by Thrivent's large cap equity teams, which rely on fundamental research and disciplined investment processes. The Fund combines the best ideas from the large cap growth and large cap value strategies.

International quantitative

The international portion of the Fund is managed by Thrivent's Systematic Alpha team, which uses sophisticated factor-based quantitative models to pick stocks outside of the U.S. The team customizes models for different geographic markets and is constantly seeking ways to improve and optimize the models, incorporating new findings from their research.

“The Fund combines our expertise in tactical allocations with our strengths in fundamental and quantitative management.”

Why global investing?

Economies across the world become more interconnected as international trade grows. With this increase in global trade, there is now a greater global representation of the largest companies in the world. This means that investors in these companies can benefit from the growth in the global economy.

Risks: Large companies may be unable to respond quickly to new competitive challenges and may not be able to attain a high growth rate. The Fund's value is influenced by a number of factors, including the performance of the broader market, the effectiveness of the Adviser's allocation strategy, and risks specific to the Fund's asset classes, market cap groups, investment styles, and issuers. Foreign investments involve additional risks, such as currency fluctuations and political, economic and market instability, which may be magnified for investments in emerging markets. Markets may also be impacted by domestic or global events, including public health threats, terrorism, natural disasters or similar events. The use of quantitative investing techniques and derivatives such as futures also involve risks. The Adviser's assessment of investments may prove incorrect, resulting in losses or poor performance. These and other risks are described in the prospectus.

Investing involves risks, including the possible loss of principal. The prospectus and summary prospectus contain more complete information on the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of the fund, and other information, which investors should read and consider carefully before investing. Prospectuses and summary prospectuses are available at thriventfunds.com or by calling 800-847-4836.
